Breakfast and Brainstorming: VANA Looking Forward

This leadership weekend is a free event funded by VANA. Hotel and group meals are included. It is intended as an intensive opportunity to become significantly better acquainted with the VANA and its efforts to impact the legislative and cultural future of the CRNA profession. It is a great opportunity to meet the current leadership and potential future leaders of VANA, one of whom may be you! As such, we regret that it will not be possible for you to bring your family.
